

The Duke of Marlborough.

Churchill's father, Lord Randolph, was second son of the seventh Duke of Marlborough. His ancestor, the first Duke, had risen to fame and fortune during the reign of Queen Anne. Described by one Victorian historian as notoriously fond of money, he played the decisive role in the overthrow of James II. When William of Orange landed at Torbay on 3rd November 1688, the future Duke of Marlborough, John Churchill, marched against the invader and then coolly turned his army over to him.

His conduct can easily be explained by reference to the Jewish Encyclopaedia. This work declares that John Churchill, first Duke of Marlborough, was paid the then enormous sum of £6,000 a year by Solomon Medina in recognition of his many services. As the Jew's chosen candidate to replace James II on the throne, the Dutchman William of Orange was paid in the form of a 'loan' of two million Dutch guilders by the Jewish merchant, Antonio Lopez Suasso, to take him across the Channel. Although this has been kept out of the history books, it can be seen that Jewish money-changers were the real power behind the scenes controlling events. As pointed out, for valuable services rendered, William allowed the Jews to establish their misnamed 'Bank of England', which effectively gave them control over the country's affairs. Thus was instituted the National Debt and the conversion of the English into tax and debt slaves. A recent issue of £20 notes confirmed this by printing the six-pointed so-called 'Star of David' on one side, slightly disguised but clearly visible to the discerning mind. In fact a lie is printed across the top of every banknote: it should be 'Bank of the Jews'. With help of their paid lackeys William III and John Churchill, the Jews founded the 'Bank of England' in 1694 and they have controlled it ever since.

The Jewish Encyclopedia (B, Vol. IX., p. 454) writes of the Jew Don Pacifico who live in Athens, "When the Easter burning of Judas Iscariot customary in that city was given up in 1847 at the request of the Rothschilds, the mob in revenge burned down Pacifico's house, whereupon he claimed compensation to the amount of £26,618. When this rather preposterous claim was not treated seriously by the Greek Government, Lord Palmerston sent a British Fleet to Piraeus (1850) and seized all the ships in the harbour." This led to the withdrawal of the French Ambassador from London. As a consequence of all this, the Government was defeated by 37 votes, but in spite of that the Cabinet decided to do nothing about it. In the debate, "Such shuffling, special pleading, and paltry evasions were never before heard from public men of their eminence and character" (K, 19th May, 1850). It is likely that Lord Palmerston used the Rothschilds at least as much as they used him. He was a friend of Hon. Henry Fitzroy whose wife was a Rothschild, and he spoke in 1840 at the Mansion House meeting of protest against the threatened execution of the Jewish Ritual Murderers of Damascus (see page. 53)

The destruction of the buffalo was thus effected : A high price was offered for buffalo hides in whatever quantity they were offered. All men who wished to hunt buffalo could get an outfit on credit and pay for it in buffalo hides. On these terms, an army of buffalo hunters was organized. Hunters lined the banks of the streams where the buffaloes came to drink, and by shoot-ing them down, drove the herds away; and thus con-tinued to shoot them as, parched with thirst, they came to the streams to drink. Some shot the buffaloes ; some skinned the carcasses : some hauled off hides. In two or three years, the buffaloes numbering many millions were exterminated. Nobody but the London Money Kings could have thus effected the extermination of the buffalo.

Secret World Government 1926.

At the last decisive council of the British Cabinet on July 3, 1914, Mr. Lloyd George invited Lord Rothschild to listen to and guide the debate. This Prime Minister played his demoniacal game on behalf of the Rothschilds, whose mere tool he has always been and still is. If England had then honestly declared that she would stand by Russia and France, there would have been NO WAR, because the Kaiser would never have permitted it, notwithstanding the 10 Jews, who closely surrounded him: Bethman-Hollweg-Rothschild, Rathenau, Ballin, Dernburg, Ambassadors E. Goschen, Schoen, et al.

The Rothschilds, through Mr. Lloyd George, prevented such declaration by England, and thus made certain the most bloody, senseless and disastrous war. Page 48

Count Cherep Spiridovich 1926 The Secret World Government or The Hidden Hand.

On June 16, 1900, the Jew-owned newspapers in Europe published as news that the German Ambassador to China, Count Clemens von Ketteler, was killed, because he entered a district of Peking forbidden to the Whites. But the murder occurred exactly two weeks later, and precisely when he came into this district. For this "Chinese" crime, the Chinese people were severely punished in order to irritate the Asiatics against the Whites. Who did all this? Somebody in the entourage of the Kaiser persuaded him to be most drastic with the Asiatics. Who staged the crime in Peking and who acted simultaneously in Berlin.. and who knew two weeks ahead that this would occur? By a combination of Big capital and Bolshevism Judaism is getting ready to conquer the World" (Deutsche Tageszeitung). "The Judeo-Masonry means constant wars" (The Universal Anti-Jewish Alliance, the Aryan Committee 33, rue Gioffredo, Nice, France). "Lloyd George said he did not believe any ruler or statesman caused the war. It may be a century before the world will know the full truth" (Sen. Copeland).

General Nicholas, uncle of the Czar, understood that the only hope for Russia lay in an immediate, decisive victory. With this objective in mind, he immediately launched a furious assault with two Russian armies into East Prussia. He aimed to cut a path through to Berlin, and achieve victory by 64 DESCENT INTO SLAVERY? capturing the German capital. In the Battle of Tannenberg (August 26- September 15, 1914), the Russian Northern Army stopped Hindenburg while the Southern Army swept through the forests to be at Hindenburg's back. When it appeared certain that Hindenburg would be crushed and Berlin taken, orders came from London to stop the advance and hold positions on both fronts. Obviously, such a stunning victory would have proved disastrous to the financial vultures who planned to reap an inestimable harvest from the bloodbath they had only weeks earlier unleashed across the European continent. What happened next on the Eastern Front is of the utmost significance, and demonstrates the power of the 'hidden hand' in international power politics. While the Russian Northern Army was under orders to hold its positions, von Hindenburg, who was later lauded as being a "brilliant military strategist," virtually abandoned the northern front, rushed most of his troops to the southern section- leaving his northern front exposed and undefended in the face of the Russian Northern Army- and counterattacked. Von Hindenburg's combined armies smashed the Russian Southern Army in a struggle in which fatalities far surpassed anything experienced on the Western Front. With half of their regular army deployed elsewhere, the Russians rushed all the reinforcements they could find- old men, farm boys, wounded soldiers- to the southern front in a despairing effort to stem the flow of von Hindenburg's onrushing forces. Their efforts were in vain. The International Banker engineered defeat at Tannenberg and Mazurian Lakes destroyed the Russian Second Army and gave the Germans a clear edge in the ensuing months. Russia was aided by large numbers of Slavs who defected from the German side. This enabled Russia to form a 'Czech Legion' of over 100,000 men. Russia continued her losing struggle for another two and a half years. Page 64

"Governments do not govern, but merely control the machinery of government, being themselves controlled by the hidden hand." - Benjamin Disraeli

The Federal Reserve System I proved in my work that it was secretly drafted in 1910 by Paul Warburg at the behest of the Rothschilds in order to finance World War I and provide capital for the various belligerent powers, not merely the United States.

He was a stock speculator, and a close friend of August Belmont, Sr nee Schoenberg, American representative of the Rothschild family's banking. Randolph Churchill, (1849-1895), politician

The father of Winston Churchill was an intimate of the Rothschild family. He formed a close association with Nathaniel, 1st Lord Rothschild, on whose behalf he reported on the development of the mining industry in South Africa. Churchill was a frequent guest at Rothschild houses. The Rothschilds made extensive loans to Churchill.

Jennie's father was Leonard Jerome, one-time lawyer, elevated to become a newspaper magnate with a principal interest in the New York Times and the Wall Street Banker. Said to have squandered two fortunes, Jerome had an extravagant lifestyle that was a byword in fashionable Fifth Avenue circles. There was bitter acrimony between the then Duke and Jerome over the marriage settlement. It was finally agreed that about £3,600 a year (£300,000 in today's money) would be settled on the newly married couple, £2,500 guaranteed by the Jeromes and the balance furnished by the Duke, who in addition cancelled his son's debts, estimated at £2,000.

Randolph needed all this money to maintain the family's fine house in Curzon Street and an even larger house in Charles Street, with a numerous retinue of servants, grooms, gardeners, cooks, etc., to maintain his unbelievably luxurious and opulent lifestyle. Remember, this was at a time when a labouring man in Britain was lucky if he earned ten shillings a week (£25 a year). Many of the British lived in abject poverty; multitudes of children were overworked, underfed and undernourished, ran about in rags with no shoes on their feet and were deformed by rickets. This was the luxurious lifestyle into which Winston Churchill was born and grew up.

Jenny Jacobson, Churchill's mother was Jenny Jerome. Her father was involved in theatre investment and changed his name from Jacobson to Jerome. Randolph Churchill Marries In April 1874

Jenny's father paid Churchill to marry Jenny, who was pregnant at the time. Randolph received $2.5 million in today's money, and assurances his career would take off. It was a private ceremony and even Randolph's parents refuse to attend. Seven months later, Winston is born.

Among the passengers who were taken prisoner was the young journalist Winston Churchill, whose life Ricchiardi spared by pretending not to see him dumping his pistol and dum-dum ammunition which had been declared unlawful on pain of death.

Sidney Street Siege Churchill Booed for opposing the Aliens Act to stem Immigration (of Jews)into Britain.

Subsequent research has pinpointed them as ‘expropriators’, carrying out robberies to fund Lenin and his Bolshevik movement. After the Russian revolution, one of the Leesma members, Jacob Peters, was to become second in command of Cheka, the dreaded Bolshevik secret police. Some modern historians believe that it was Peters who fired the shots which killed Bentley, Tucker and Choat and injured Bryant.

The Sidney Street siege involved British military and police forces battling two Jewish Latvian gang members, accomplices of George Gardstein, responsible for the Houndsditch armed robbery in December 1910 resulting in the deaths of three policemen and Gardstein himself.

Taft - New York Times 1917

President Taft was brought to his knees, refused a second term, then was decorated by B’nai B’rith and given a professorship at Yale — then addressed B’nai B’rith audiences and wrote internationalist propaganda until his death.

Baruch was reported in a "New Yorker" profile to have made a profit of seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars in one day out of United States Steel stock, after he planted a phony peace rumor in Washington. With the publication of the peace news, steel stock dropped sharply, and Baruch bought up as much as he wanted. He had contributed fifty thousand dollars to Woodrow Wilson's campaign in 1915, and as payment he received control of America's heavy industry.

In "Who's Who in American Jewry", Baruch mentions that he was a member of the Commission which did all purchasing for the Allies during the war. This is a characteristic bit of modesty. Bernard Baruch was the Commission. He spent the American taxpayers' money at the rate of ten billion dollars a year, and saw to it that the orders went to those firms in which he had more than a polite interest. Baruch also made his first contact with the firm of Kuhn, Loeb Co., when he and Edward H. Harriman, front man for Jacob Schiff's successful campaign to win America's railways for the Rothschild family, combined their talents to gain control over the public transit systems of New York City. He also was a close associate of Andrew Mellon in the Texas Gulf Oil Co.P57

It was Ewing, as chief of the PHS, who officially gave the green light to fluoridation only five years after the initiation of the 10 to 15-year experiments in Grand Rapids, Michigan, and Newburgh, New York. At that time the permanent teeth of children born under fluoridation had not yet erupted, and therefore no reliable scientific conclusions concerning its benefits could possibly have been reached. Prior to Ewing's tenure of office in the federal government, Andrew Mellon, the founder of ALCOA, had been the U.S. Treasurer. The PHS was then in the Department of the Treasury. What a Cohencidence

On being questioned by Senator McCumber about the circumstances of our entry into the war, Wilson was asked, "Do you think if Germany had committed no act of war or no act of injustice against our citizens that we would have gotten into this war?"

"I do think so," Wilson replied.

"You think we would have gotten in anyway?" asked McCumber.

"I do," said Wilson.

ALL THESE THINGS A.N. FIELD

Mr. Baruch told the Congressional committee that he had become acquainted with Woodrow Wilson before the war. He said that in 1915, two years before America declared war, he Page 114. thought that the United States would be drawn in. He felt there "ought to be some mobilization of industries." Page 113..

But by far the worst part of this conspiracy was shown up by the reports of our Armies HI the field regarding the large quantities of faulty shells which killed thousands of our own men-these shells often bursting over our own trenches. Most of this dangerous ammunition came from the U.S.A. Enormous quantities of shells from the U.S.A. had to be scrapped. Page 116

Henry Ford.

"I was reluctant to believe this, and said so. So they went into details to tell me the means by which the Jews controlled the war-how they had the money, how they had cornered all the basic materials needed to fight the war, and all that, and they talked so long and so well that they convinced me. They said, and they believed, that the Jews had started the war, that they would continue it so long as they wished, and that until the Jews stopped the war it would not be stopped." Page 118

In his book "After the War" (Constable, 1922),

Lieut.-Colonel Repington records a conversation with Count Albert Mensdorff in Austria in 1921. He says: "M.(Mensdorff) thought that Israel had won the war. They had made it, thrived on it, and profited by it. It was their supreme revenge on Christianity." In reality, the holocaust of 1914-1918. was but an incident in an onward march toward horizons sombre and forbidding.

In a work eulogistic of Jewish commercial ability, and bearing Jewish commendation-"The Jews and Modern Capitalism," written by Professor Werner Sombart of Breslau University shortly before the war-we find the author, after surveying the pages of history, penning the pregnant words:

"Wars are the Jews' harvests." P118

"The Russians have so far put in the line 7,000,000 men. Their losses when I left Petrograd (11th July) had reached the enormous figure of 3,800,000 ... The Russian authorities and the public opinion of the country have always looked to the Western Allies, and particularly to England, for the supply to a common cause of munitions in general, and more particularly of those which Russia is not itself able to manufacture. "I am definitely told that so far no supplies of munitions whatever have reached Russia from England... We (Colonel 102 ALL THESE THINGS Knox and myself) represented that the arrangement made by the Russian Government with Messrs. Vickers Maxim and Co. was not made through the British Government. But we could in no way remove the grave impression caused by the failure of the British firm to supply the ammunition which it had promised under different dates from December last, a failure which all Russians who are aware of it associate intimately with the crushing losses in recent fighting, and the obvious necessity of almost indefinite retreat until this crying deficiency has been made good... "The present military crisis in Russia has led, among other things, to the sending under fire even of large units entirely unequipped with rifles, and the restrictions in certain cases of the amount of ammunition discharged to two shells per day, or in the case of infantry ten rounds per man. This has inevitably raised the widest feelings of vexation among the troops and-through the return of vast numbers of wounded-all over the country. This strong and general feeling (especially in view of the defaults of Messrs. Vickers Maxim and Co.) cannot fail to be gravely prejudicial to the confidence so far placed by Russia in her Western Allies. It has also led to threatening signs of resentment against the Russian authorities, which in my judgment, must lead, if continued, to grave internal complications. Momentous developments in the internal affairs of Russia seem in any case inevitable." This report is stated to have been made "in the summer of 1915." Sir Bernard Pares makes further reference to this matter in his foreword to "The Murder of the Romanovs" (1935).

"At that time the supply of ammunition from England was still much short of our requirements, and the six or seven million rounds arriving weekly from the United States, were certainly welcome. If, however, the cases were defective and liable to cause jams, they ceased to be a benefit and became a positive source of danger... I recommended that the American ammunition should be withdrawn. My advice was accepted and the ammunition was marked 'For practice purposes only.' "Millions upon millions of rounds of small arm", ammunition sent from America were absolutely useless, as proved to be the case later with a large proportion of the shells. I never heard, however, that the money paid for these munitions was ever refunded.

ALL THESE THINGS. Page 124

Chuck Maultsby WW1.

What we have uncovered is an enormous double-deal whereby not only did food go to Belgium, food that was often sold for profit, but supplies also went to Germany directly down the River Rhine. We know that Edith Cavell saw what was happening. As an avid letter writer whose letters were printed in the Times, she threatened to expose the scandal. This is a story of money, bankers and producers colluding to reap millions from the desperation of a hungry Europe, and in so doing prolonged the bloody war.

'Prolonging the Agony' examines the scandal of the French Briey Basin iron and steel mines and forges which the French army could either have occupied on the first day of the war or destroyed, in order to stop them falling into German hands. Despite repeated calls for the French army to destroy the forges, the French authorities would not allow it. An expedition to bomb the forges was slapped down by the French High Command. Who gave the orders? Who made the profits? To whose instructions was the French government answerable? It was a scandal which has been swept under the carpet to avoid accountability. Had Briey been destroyed, Germany would not have had the raw materials and munitions to fight beyond 1915. What is the truth of the so-called blockade of the North Sea passages which allegedly starved Germany of its resources? A truly brave and remarkable small fleet comprising very old vessels, none of which was built for the high seas task, sat out in the unforgiving Atlantic and North Sea to stop all contraband getting into Germany from August 1914 onwards. What happened? Virtually every ship they brought into port under escort was allowed to continue its journey by order of the Admiralty in London. Yet the public and parliament believed that Germany was being starved of its war necessities. They believed the lie because Winston Churchill said a full blockade was in place and that Germany would surrender in nine months.

Yet another scandal was the complete farce of the Gallipoli campaign. Because the Russians had suffered such vast losses on the Eastern Front, the Czar demanded evidence that war was worthwhile. The promise of Constantinople was the prize which animated him most, and the Gallipoli campaign was concocted by the Secret Elite to make it appear that a serious effort was underway to attack Turkey and win Constantinople for Russia. It was set up to fail. You may think this impossible, but Prolonging the Agony provides detailed evidence that the campaign was an orchestrated farce from start to finish. But it convinced the Russians and kept them in the war. The Secret Elite had no intention of ever giving the strategically vital port of Constantinople to Russia. Ever. The story and the needless sacrifice is a disgrace. Indeed Gallipoli was an outrageous and deliberate failure, but it prolonged the war, as was required. Your reaction to this statement may well be that it can't be true. Please read the chapters on this crucial event. They will make you uncomfortable. And there could have been peace, several times over. But peace was not on the Secret Elite agenda. When, by 1916, the military failures were so costly and embarrassing some key players in the British government were willing to talk about peace and discuss what that might mean. This could not be tolerated. The potential peacemakers had to be ditched. Lloyd George was promoted to prime minister in Britain and Georges Clemenceau made prime minister in France. The unelected European leaders had one common bond. They would fight Germany until she was crushed. Prolonging the Agony details how the secret cabal organised the change of government without a single vote being cast. A new government, an inner-elite war cabinet thrust the Secret Elite leader, Alfred Milner into power at the very inner-core of the decision-makers in British politics. Democracy? They had no truck with democracy. The voting public had no say. The men entrusted with the task would keep going till the end and their place-men were backed by the media and the money power, in Britain, France and America. The only end they had in mind was Germany destroyed.

Lusitania

Churchill, who was 1/2 Jewish, leaked intelligence to Germany that Lusitania carried munitions, and then it was sent into a U-boat infested area. The ship was supposedly torpedoed, and a massive bomb exploded, killing 1200. This set the stage for Wilson (Wohlson) to bring the USA into WW1, at a later date..

Just before the RMS Lusitania sailed in May, Churchill wrote this memo to Walter Runciman, president of Britain's Board of Trade: "It is most important to attract neutral shipping to our shores in the hope especially of embroiling the United States with Germany For our part we want the traffic — the more the better; and if some of it gets into trouble, better still.".....

The Lusitania set sail for Liverpool on May 1st, 1915 from New York harbor. It was carrying millions of rounds of ammunition and shrapnel. The previous captain Daniel Dow had resigned because of mixing civilian passengers with munitions. The ship was to have a British battleship escort called the Juno but was recalled before the rendezvous in spite of the knowledge that a Uboat was active in the path of the Lusitania.

On May 5th, the Uboat U20 sank the schooner Earl of Lathom. On May 6th, it also sank two more ships, the Candidate and Centurion. All of these sinkings occurred directly in Lusitania's course. The Lusitania was given orders under the premise of saving coal to only run 3 of 4 boilers which would slow the vessel considerably. The only warning Lusitania received was a general "submarines active off south coast of Ireland".

At about 2:10 pm on May 7th the Lusitania was hit with a torpedo that had been fired by U20. Immediately following the explosion, a second explosion occurred. The ship sunk in 18 minutes. There were 1,959 people on board of which 1,198 died including 128 Americans.

Captain William Turner was blamed by the Admiralty in an official Board of Trade inquiry held by Lord Mersey. Captain Richard Webb of the navy wrote to Mersey: "I am directed by the board of Admiralty to inform you that it is considered politically expedient that Capt Turner, the master of the Lusitania, be most prominently blamed for the disaster." Winston Churchill's response to the report given to Mersey was "Fully concur! We shall pursue the Captain without check!" Luckily for Captain Turner, Lord Mersey was a fair man and saw that Turner was becoming the scapegoat. Turner was found not guilty and the German government was blamed. Mersey resigned and called the trial "a damned, dirty business."

The sinking of the Lusitania was a clear false flag perpetrated by Winston Churchill and the British Admiralty to draw America into the war. The blame should have been placed on Churchill's orders and not the German government. It was probably no coincidence that the ship was owned by J.P. Morgan's competition in shipping. The Lusitania sinking did not immediately draw the U.S. into war however, and it was almost two years later that the U.S. finally joined the war.

(April 4, 1917) because a German submarine attacked the S/S "Sussex" without warning sunk in the English Channel, according to the list of names given several Americans on board drowned. This "moral crusade" of Wilson's to Europe soon turned out to be Lie and provocation because the list of names turned out to be a fake and the S/S Sussex was anchored in London Harbor completely unscathed.

"When Lord Kitchener was asked to go to Russia to reorganize the Russian army, his cruiser, the S. S. Hampshire was torpedoed, and a meeting was held in London on the question of how Lord Kitchener met his death. No one dared speak. Not one speaker would tell the audience how Lord Kitchener met his death. Had he lived the whole war would have changed."

General Ludendorff said of Kitchener, in a letter on view in the United Services Museum in Whitehall:—"His mysterious death was the work neither of a German mine nor of a German torpedo, but of that power which would not permit the Russian Army to recover with the help of Lord Kitchener because the destruction of Czarist Russia had been determined upon. Lord Kitchener's death was caused by his abilities."

WARNING TO NEW RUSSIA.

Taft Commends Jewish Efforts for Liberated People.

Ex-President Taft applauded vigorously last night when Jacob H. Schiff, at a dinner of the "American Jewish Friends of Free Russia," praised Theodore Roosevelt for his efforts, while President, to bring the Russian autocracy to a realization of the wrongs committed against Jewish subjects. There was another outburst of applause when Mr. Schiff, introduced by the toastmaster as a "Russian Revolutionist," asserted that, in his opinion, the abrogation of the treaty between the United States and Russia because of discrimination against American citizens of Jewish birth was the inspiration which, to a great extent, ultimately brought about the overthrow of the Romanoffs. Following the speeches a resolution was adopted expressing confidence that Russia would not make a separate peace with Germany.

"I remember the efforts of Theodore Roosevelt, and be it ever to his credit, to bring the Russian autocracy to a realization of its wrongs," said Mr. Schiff. "But I remember also that it was under the Administration of our honored guest of the evening, ex-President Taft, that the treaty was abrogated."

"Some of us have had some uneasy moments since the beginning of the present war, feeling that the intrigues which had been organized for a restoration of that treaty might be successful, but I am thankful to say that when the subject was brought to the attention of President Wilson he said: 'Do not be afraid; the United States never will make another treaty with Russia so long as the present conditions last.' Fortunately, those conditions do not now exist. The revolution has come, the Czar's Government has been swept away over night, and the first act of the new Government, God bless it, was to call home Russian exiles and to emancipate the Russian Jews."

"We do not know what may come hereafter, but this we do know—that never again will these rights be taken away. The Russian Jew has been liberated and will remain so forever."

The dinner, which was held at the Hotel Astor, was attended by 800 guests, among them Henry Morgenthau, ex-Ambassador to Turkey; Dr. S. Meltzer of the Rockefeller Institute, Congressman Meyer London, Dr. Samuel Scholman, Boris Shatsky, unofficial representative in the United States of the new Russian Government; Herman Bernstein, and Dr. Julius Halpern, who made speeches. Edwin Markham and Robert Underwood Johnson read poems written by them on the Russian revolution.

Mr. Taft praised the Jews for having retained their racial identity in the face of centuries of persecution, and congratulated them on the Russian revolution.

The resolution opposing a separate peace with Germany will be cabled to M. Milukoff, Foreign Minister in the provisional Cabinet of Russia.

"Max Warburg represents the family in its native land. Max Warburg has as much to do with the German war government as his family and financial colleagues had to do with the United States war government.

"As has been recounted in the press the world over, the brother from America and the brother from Germany both met at Paris as government representatives in determining the peace. There were so many Jews in the German delegation that it was known by the term 'kosher,' also as 'the Warburg delegation,' and there were so many Jews in the American delegation that the delegates from the minor countries of Europe looked upon the United States as a Jewish country .

United States Naval Secret Service Report of December 12, 1918, on Mr. Warburg is as follows:

"WARBURG, PAUL, New York City. German, naturalized American citizen 1911, was decorated by the Kaiser in 1912, was vice chairman of the Federal Reserve Board, handled large sums furnished by Germany for Lenin and Trotsky. Has a brother who is leader of the espionage system of Germany."

Jacob Schiff, Felix Warburg, Otto H. Kahn, Isaac Seligman, Max Breitung, Mortimer Schiff, and other Jewish banking magnates, engineered everything. They finance Trotsky and Lenin. Trotsky Is Brought To New York Jacob Schiff, the American chairman of the Kuhn & Loeb bank, was the financier of the Bolshevik revolution. He brought Trotsky to New York in February 1916. Trotsky recruited expatriate young Russian Jews from New York's large Russian Jewish immigrant population, and trained them as revolutionaries. Trotsky/Bronstein Leaves NY. On March 27, 1917, Trotsky and 300 well-trained Jewish Communists boarded the Norwegian steamer "Kristianiafjord" for a journey to Sweden, and then via railroad, went through Sweden and Finland to St. Petersburg in Russia. Trotsky's group included revolutionaries, PR men, and New York Jewish mafia thugs. Their purpose was to finish the Russian revolution and establish a Marxist government under the leadership of Lenin, Stalin, and Trotsky. Schiff gave this group $20 million in gold

A Russian From Soviet Russia reports, under oath in a public court, that in Moscow the police made a street drive, bringing all the homeless children and young people together. They were inspected by a medical man as to their condition. Out of this mass from 1,200 to 1,400 were singled out, and by means of a good substantial meal, and other favors, they were induced to march with soldiers on horseback out of Moscow into the open country. At last they halted. The soldiers on the horses were on the outside of the children's and young people's group, driving them into a bundle tight together. A word of command. Hidden machine guns began a weird song of death. In a few minutes the whole group of humanity was a mass of dead and dying. The machine guns were silent. Soldiers came to bury everything that was left. Why was all this? From 1,200 to 1,400 young people, living on the streets of Moscow, had become so diseased that the government knew of no other way to get rid of the plague." P48

Further, the forces of Yudenitch had been armed and equipped by Great Britain to liberate Petrograd. Success was near. The former Russian capital was seriously menaced. For three days the imminent capture of the town was cabled all over the world. Russian values rose rapidly and kept on rising on all the money exchanges; the jobbers sold and sold roubles and Russian shares of all description. Suddenly the British fleet protecting the flank of Yudenitch and already shelling Kronstadt withdrew from its position of protection, thereby completely upsetting the preconcerted plan of action. But not satisfied with this disgraceful betrayal, the British fleet proceeded to Riga and started bombarding the anti-bolshevist German-Russian troops, which were there fighting the Soviet Red Army....

Wrangel received all told, three shiploads of ammunition and old guns and rifles which for the most part had to be repaired at Sebastopol. For "value received" he had to deliver shiploads of grain to the French. Of the 10 members of the 'French military mission' 7 were Jews. Thus France treated the Russian general in the Crimea in the same manner which England had thought fit to use towards Yudenitch. Page 8

Even for the spoiled child of the Soviet, the Red Army, food began to get scarce. Whereas until then not a newspaper in the world had taken the slightest notice of the famishing Russian people, suddenly the whole Jewish press in all countries started clamouring so as to draw attention to 'dying Russia' insisting on immediate relief. "The population of large provinces in Russia is dying of hunger.

"Hundreds of thousands succumb every day"

The Grave Diggers of Russia.

This quote by Trotsky (Bronstein) highlights how those of Jewish heritage felt about those of European blood. "England is nothing but the last ward of the European madhouse, and quite possibly it will prove to be the ward for particularly violent cases." It has been estimated that 13 million Europeans were exterminated during this period and almost all of the positions of power were in the hands of Jews. Trotsky advocated a 'Permanent Karl Marx Revolution' that facilitated the 'revolutionary holocaust' revealed by Marx. Funded by Jacob Schiff and Max Warburg,

Enemies within the Gate - 'Plain English' edited by Lord Alfred Douglas – 1921

The Government knows, just as we know (and it knows why we know), that the German code used at the Battle of Jutland was discovered shortly after the fight began, and that all the German wireless messages were translated rapidly during the battle. Why are we not favoured with these messages? They were in existence, but are they in existence at this moment? If not, who has destroyed them? If they have been destroyed, we know the reason why. For the honour of Britain, and in the interests of the safety of the Realm, we take it upon ourselves to state something which the Government cannot deny—namely, that the translation of the German naval code revealed the fact, during the actual fighting of the Battle of Jutland, that Germany was in communication with some powerful individual in the Admiralty, and that plans for the escape of the German Fleet were being devised by this means. To this may be added another fact which cannot be denied by the Government. The Germans were instantly informed that their naval code had been translated, and they changed that code the next day. Though the daily press has been intimidated into silence we shall certainly not be intimidated. ..

Jews and Jutland - the first official report of the Battle of Jutland was published. The world was informed by the Government that many of our capital ships had been sunk; and the actual German losses, admittedly known to the Government, were suppressed. As a result the impression was created that Britain had sustained a severe defeat at sea. Instantly British stock in America fell ; but within a week the truth was well known, and British stock in America rose again. It may be of interest to the public to know that as a result of this fall and rise in stock a certain financial group of Jews cleared a net profit of £18,000,000. It may also be said that the Cabinet Minister who drew up and issued the false report about the Battle of Jutland which produced this fall in stocks had spent the week-end with one of the most powerful members of the financial group, Sir Ernest Cassel, and came straight from Sir Ernest's house to publish his report, the report which led the world for a week to believe that the British Navy had been defeated by Germany. The Press and the Government have met these statements with nothing better than terrified silence. Not a solitary word about Jutland has been printed in our British journals for two weeks. Page .28

The American Admiral at Dantzig Recalled by President Wilson.

Rear-Admiral Hughes, United States Navy, who has been in charge of the American forces in Dantzig, has just been recalled from his post. This action was taken by Josephus Daniels upon the President's orders when they received an urgent report from Rear Admiral Hughes upon the class of emigrant being shipped to the United States in the famous "kosher" ships of the Harrimann-Hamburg line. These ships were fitted out by a Mr. Krushnitz, of New York, with rabbinical superintended kitchens in order to cater for the Jews fleeing from Russia and Poland with their plunder. Rear-Admiral Hughes visited the camps of these Jews and found them full of the lowest types of criminal humanity. But, even more strange, he found the camps in charge of men dressed as officers and soldiers of the United States regular army. He knew no such force was in Poland, and he demanded the authority of the men (who were all East-end New York Jews) for wearing the United States uniform. The Jews replied they were members of the B'nai Brith, or Sons of the Covenant. They said that Mr. Henry Morgenthau, a friend of President Wilson's, had given them permission to wear uniform and they were paid through the Warburg's bank. Naturally the United States Admiral reported this wholesale swindle and mis-use of American uniform and as a result of telling the truth he has been recalled and the affair remains as hushed-up as Jutland Page.165

Controversy of Zion Douglas Reed.

As long ago as the 1920's for instance, the Maharajah of Kashmir asked Sir Arthur Lothian (as that British diplomat relates), "why the British government was establishing a 'Yehudi ka Raj' (Rule of the Jews) in India. I demurred to this description, but he insisted that it was true, saying the Viceroy, Lord Reading, was a Jew, the Secretary of State, Mr. Edwin Montague, was a Jew, the High Commissioner, Sir William Meyer, was a Jew, and what more evidence did I want?" Thus a remote Indian Maharajah, thirty years ago, clearly saw the true shape of coming events in the Western world. I quoted earlier the statement of the Egyptian Prime Minister to Count Bernadotte, that "Jewish economic power controlled the economic system of. . . the United States, England, France, Egypt itself. . ." In the seven years that have passed the leaders of all the Arab states have openly and repeatedly charged that the American government has become merely the instrument of Zionist ambitions and have pointed to their own experience as the proof. The man had crept into his office to secure papers relating to a murder trial. This district officer was forced to release the spy, and ordered to apologise to him in open court.

At the same time I must say that my running of the paper in the Conservative interest, and in the strongest opposition to Messrs Asquith, Lloyd George and Winston Churchill, whom I regarded then, and regard still more now, as jointly responsible for the ruin of the country and the "smash up" of almost everything that used to make life in England worth living, Page 220

Lord Alfred Douglas 1923 Autobiography.

My present view about the Jews is that if the English (as they apparently do) like to be "bossed" by the Jews, and get very angry with anyone who tells them about it, there is no sense in blaming the Jews for taking advantage of the situation. If a Nation or a Party or any body of persons chooses to lie down on its face and invite the Jews to come and trample on it, why blame the Jews for accepting the invitation? I used to get very excited about these questions, and about politics generally, when I had Plain English. I was desperately sincere, and quite ready to die or go to prison for my convictions. But the way I was treated on this occasion by The Morning Post, and by others who professed to share all my views, and the subsequent prosecution and imprisonment I underwent in return for my efforts to help my country, completely cured me of any desire to meddle further in English politics or "patriotic" movements. Leaving out all questions of my accusations against Mr Churchill for which I was convicted, and on which I do not desire to add a word, his reception into the bosom of the Conservative Party, after he had spent twenty-five years of his life in abusing and attacking and trying (most successfully) to keep that party out of power, convinced me that there was no place for me in English politics. I have no polite name for that sort of business. Page 304

At the end of the First World War, Germany was essentially tricked [see Paul Johnson "A History of the Modern World" (1983) p24 and H Nicholson Peacemaking 1919 (1933) pp13-16] into paying massive reparations to France and other economic competitors and former belligerent countries in terms of the so-called Treaty of Versailles, thanks to the liberal American President Woodrow Wilson. Germany was declared to be solely responsible for the war, in spite of the fact that "Germany did not plot a European war, did not want one, and made genuine efforts, though too belated, to avert one." (Professor Sydney B Fay The Origins of the World War (vol. 2 p 552).

Immediately following the war (WW1) the British government, acting on orders from their hidden masters in the City, clamped a blockade on Germany. This move had a devastating effect on the German people. On March 4th, 1919, Winston Churchill declared in the House of Commons that Britain was "enforcing the blockade with vigor. . . This weapon of starvation falls mainly on the women and children, upon the old, the weak and the poor. . ." (The Nation, June 21, 1919, p. 980). While the London Daily News was carrying eye-witness reports from Germany of "many horrible things. . . rows of babies feverish from want of food, exhausted by privations to the point where their little limbs were little wands, their expressions hopeless and their eyes full of pain," the Associated Press was carrying a report (datelined Paris, July 24) that "Germany will have to surrender to France 500 Stallions, 3000 fillies, 90,000 milk cows, 100,000 sheep and 10,000 goats. . . Two hundred stallions, 5000 mares, 5000 fillies, 50,000 cows and 40,000 heifers, also are to go to Belgium from Germany. . ." Professor Quigley tells us that "the results of the blockade were devastating. Continued for nine months after the armistice, it caused the deaths of 800,000 persons. . ." (Tragedy and Hope, p. 261).

In January 1918, vaccines were administered to soldiers at Ft. Riley, Kansas. Shortly afterwards, the vaccine was offered by the Division Surgeon to the camp at large. The vaccine used was made in the laboratory of The Rockefeller Institute. Between Jan. 21 and June 4 of 1918, Dr. Frederick L. Gates reported an experiment in which soldiers were given three doses of a bacterial meningitis vaccine. The vaccines were spitball dosages of a vaccine serum derived from horses....

The Institute said it distributed the bacterial serum to England, France, Belgium, Italy and other countries during WWI. Ultimately, these Rockefeller Institute quacks killed 50 to 100 million people via bacterial lung infections from 1918 to 1919.

At the Versailles Conference(1919), it was actually proposed that no restriction should in future be placed upon international movements on account of Race. The only opposition to this outrageous proposal for mongrelising the world into a universal khaki-skinned mob, came from Mr. W. M.Hughes, Prime Minister of Australia, who intimated that the six and a half million people of that country were ready to defend themselves against the whole world rather than submit to Race-mixture. Arnold Leese Pamphlet.

"As a result of these massive enforced financial reparations, by 1923 the situation in Germany became desperate and inflation on an astronomical scale became the only way out for the government. Printing presses were engaged to print money around the clock. In 1921 the exchange rate was 75 marks to the dollar. By 1924 this had become about 5 trillion marks to the dollar. This virtually destroyed the German middle class, reducing any bank savings to a virtual zero." (Koestler The God that Failed p 28)

According to Sir Arthur Bryant the British historian (Unfinished Victory (1940 pp. 136-144):

"It was the Jews with their international affiliations and their hereditary flair for finance who were best able to seize such opportunities. They did so with such effect that, even in November 1938, after five years of anti-Semitic legislation and persecution, they still owned, according to the Times correspondent in Berlin, something like a third of the real property in the Reich. Most of it came into their hands during the inflation. But to those who had lost their all this bewildering transfer seemed a monstrous injustice. After prolonged sufferings they had now been deprived of their last possessions. They saw them pass into the hands of strangers, many of whom had not shared their sacrifices and who cared little or nothing for their national standards and traditions. The Jews obtained a wonderful ascendancy in politics, business and the learned professions (in spite of constituting) less than one percent of the population. The banks, including the Reichsbank and the big private banks, were practically controlled by them. So were the publishing trade, the cinema, the theatres and a large part of the press all the normal means, in fact, by which public opinion in a civilized country is formed. The largest newspaper combine in the country with a daily circulation of four millions was a Jewish monopoly. Every year it became harder and harder for a gentile to gain or keep a foothold in any privileged occupation. At this time it was not the 'Aryans' who exercised racial discrimination. It was a discrimination that operated without violence. It was exercised by a minority against a majority. There was no persecution, only elimination. It was the contrast between the wealth enjoyed and lavishly displayed by aliens of cosmopolitan tastes, and the poverty and misery of native Germans, that has made anti-Semitism so dangerous and ugly a force in the new Europe. Beggars on horseback are seldom popular, least of all with those whom they have just thrown out of the saddle."

'Germany is the enemy of Judaism and must be pursued with deadly hatred. The goal of Judaism of today is: a merciless campaign against all German peoples and the complete destruction of the nation. We demand a complete blockade of trade, the importation of raw materials stopped, and retaliation towards every German, woman and child.'

-Jewish professor A. Kulischer, October, 1937

'The Israeli people around the world declare economic and financial war against Germany. Fourteen million Jews stand together as one man, to declare war against Germany. The Jewish wholesaler will forsake his firm, the banker his stock exchange, the merchant his commerce and the pauper his pitiful shed in order to join together in a holy war against Hitler's people.'

-Daily Express (March 24, 1933)

(Jewish Holy War to Exterminate all Christians – White People....)

Keeping in mind that the Jewish world organizations had already in 1933 declared a holy war on Germany to be fought to the death. At that time not a single hair on a Jew's head had been touched. Yet, the world resounds with the clamour for the dead Jews. But no outrage is voiced about Dresden and the genuine figure of six million murdered East Germans. No voice is raised about the millions of murdered German and European war prisoners who had fought on the German side. No plaque tells us of the 105,000 Frenchmen who were murdered because they were pro-German. No days of remembrance are held for the Dutch, Danes, Belgians, Norwegians, Rumanians, Russians, Cossacks, Ukrainians, who were slaughtered in a most bestial manner for having worked or fought on the German side.

Thies Christopherson.

"The Jews of the world now declare a Holy War against Germany. We are now engaged in a sacred conflict against the Germans. And we are going to starve them into surrender.

We are going to use a world-wide boycott against them, that will destroy them because they are dependent upon their export business." And it is a fact that two thirds of Germany's food supply had to be imported, and it could only be imported with the proceeds of what they exported. Their labor. So if Germany could not export, two thirds of Germany's population would have to starve. There just was not enough food for more than one third of the population.

The Conservative government was defeated in 1929, and Churchill, now out of office, was in need of income. After an absence of almost thirty years, he crossed the Atlantic and undertook an extensive lecture tour of North America. He stayed in New York with Benard Baruch, his trip included his only visit to the West Coast of the United States, where he was lavishly entertained in California by William Randolph Hearst. Churchill also experienced Prohibition first hand and was in New York in time to witness the Wall Street crash. The collapse of the American stock market, in which Churchill had invested, wiped out any financial gains from the tour.

Churchill's Real Mentor.

Baruch and the New York Jews mentored Churchill, who was a gambler and a drunk. He was first hooked when Baruch covered his stock losses.

Whether that was simply because of the Churchill-Roosevelt friendship or whether Baruch thought he would be useful to the Jewish cause is not clear.

Churchill a clown, a heavy drinker who dabbled in bisexuality.

The Reason Winston Succeeded-Jenny Churchill meet King Edward VII when she was 19, at the Cowes regatta. She slept with him from 1873 to 1892.

The rumor was he was Churchill's father.

Jerome settled a sum of £50,000 (approximately £2.5 million at present values), producing an income of £2,000 a year, with a half of both capital and income belonging to the husband and a half to the wife. The Duke settled another £1,100 a year for life on Randolph which gave the couple the equivalent of a present-day income of a little more than £150,000 a year, a sum which guaranteed that they would live constantly above their income and be always in debt.

Churchill funded by Bernard Baruch

His mother, the glamorous but unmaternal Jenny Jerome, had been an American heiress, married to an impoverished scion of the British aristocracy in true Henry James style. Young Winston started lecturing in the States after his adventures in the Boer war, making trips as long as three months and earning what would now be £250,000 for his pains.

After a slow start his journalism and books sold well in the US, too. This was just as well. In the stock market crash of 1929 the ever-extravagant ex-chancellor, now entering his "wilderness years", lost the equivalent of £500,000. To add injury to insult he was crossing Fifth Avenue in 1932 to visit his loyal friend, the financier Bernard Baruch, when a taxi travelling at 30mph nearly killed him. Churchill blamed himself, not the cabbie.

Churchill the Forger.

In dire financial straits in the 1930s he took to faking the paintings of the deceased French impressionist Charles Maurin because Maurin's signature sold somewhat better in the Left Bank boutiques in those days than did his own.

President Franklin D Roosevelt spotted the little deception, and wrote him a joshing letter about it in February 1942. For some reason those letters never made it into the official volumes of Churchill Roosevelt correspondence.

In 1922, Beria was deputy head of the Georgian branch of the Cheka's successor, the OGPU. The word "Cheka" is a Yiddish expression for animal slaughter. The Cheka, OGPU, GPU, NKVD, KGB are all Jewish security forces, whose soul purpose is to follow the wretched orders of the Jews in charge. In the 1920s and early 1930s Beria quickly climbed his way up through the ranks of the Cheka and its successors: the GPU, the OGPU and later the NKVD. He ruthlessly blackmailed officials in order to gain political backing and promotions. He would often set up his superiors with married women and then exposed the affairs, ruining them and then taking their posts when they resigned in disgrace. He was seen as vicious in his means to gain power and climb the ranks, but it would also seem that wherever he went, people died or were reported missing

Spanish Civil War.

In Madrid, it was estimated that one tenth of the population of Spain was murdered by the Communist Jews by 1939. De Fonteriz in "Red Terror in Madrid" tells how Cheka crews organized by Dimitrov and Rosenberg carried out a program of torture and murder so obscene that it cannot be repeated or described. To further their World Murder Plan, the Jews have occasionally allowed a few of their numbers to be sacrificed. This was brought out at the meeting in Rothschild's home in 1773, when it was stated, "But it has paid us even though we have sacrificed many of our own people. Each victim on our side is worth a thousand Goyim."

What the speaker meant was that if one Jew happens to be killed, he will be avenged by the death of one thousand Christians, or "cattle" as the Christians are derisively referred to by the Jewish cult. The speaker went on to point out to his rapt listeners that "We are interested in just the opposite ... in the diminution, the killing out of the Goyim." The record of this meeting in Rothschild's house survived how?

Latvian Arājs Kommandos Caught Jewish Communists Sacrificing Children And Planning To Exterminate All 'Israelite' Europeans. The main plan seemed to be to take control with a communist dictatorship and execute all of the "Amalek" for minor crimes. If that failed, they'd be propagandized into being hated by everyone in the world. There was even a plan to exterminate them through immigration of African males and breeding them out of existence. Most of the Satanists did not talk — they were simply content to being executed for their monstrous crimes. [But] one was willing to talk because "no one will believe you." He admitted the "Amalek" are "the Israelites, the Europeans, You!"

The [reason] they raped the child is because "Moloch demands it" — real Satanists mutilate children's genitals. It separates the serious from the fakers — there is no higher evil than defiling a

CHURCHILL CABLEGRAM

In October 1939 following the Munich appeasement conference, Churchill sent the following cablegram through the State Department in the code of our State Department, to President Roosevelt:

"I am half American and a natural person to work with you. It is evident we see eye to eye. Were I to become Prime Minister of Britain we could control the world."

This enigmatic cablegram needs interpretation. What does he mean by saying, "I am half American and a natural person to work with you: It is evident we see eye to eye"? It is very clear that he means by "we see eye to eye" that he knew Mr . Roosevelt was trying to bring about war. It was the language of a hybrid Jew to a hybrid Jew and from an ambitious war-maker to an ambitious war-maker, and Mr . Roosevelt no doubt understood it. It also meant that Churchill was against the Munich agreement just as Roosevelt was.P43

We must give Hitler credit for waging it according to the rules of civilized warfare.

It was not Hitler who initiated the campaign of bombing women and children, but it was the British and ourselves. It was not Hitler who used poison gas, but us at Hiroshima. It was not Hitler who attacked ships in neutral ports, but the British at Oran. No effort was made during the war to assassinate Roosevelt or Churchill, but two attacks were made upon the life of Hitler. It is not saying much for Hitler to say that he was a better man than Roosevelt, Churchill or Stalin; nor is it saying much for the Germans to observe that they are better than the Russians and the Jews.P107

Every soldier, white or black, who has ravished a helpless starving woman should be court-martialled and shot. The officers in charge should also be court-martialled and if found to be accessories or grossly negligent they should be appropriately punished. The precedent for such trial and severe punishment was established in the Nuernberg trials of Goering, et al. They should at least be dishonorably discharged from the army for they are a disgrace to it and to humanity.P108

"A Racial Plan for the Twentieth Century"

Israel Cohen

We must realize that our party's most powerful weapon is racial tension. By propounding into the consciousness of the dark races that for centuries they have been oppressed by the whites, we can mould them to the program of the Communist Party. In America we will aim for subtle victory. While inflaming the Negro minority against the whites, we will endeavor to instill in the whites a guilt complex for their exploitation of the Negroes. We will aid the Negroes to rise in prominence in every walk of life, in the professions and in the world of sports and entertainment. With this prestige, the Negro will be able to intermarry with the whites and begin a process which will deliver America to our cause.

Count Richard von Coudenhove-Kalergi was the founder, and President for 49 years, of the Pan-European Union, the forerunner of the EU. In his 1925 book, 'Praktischer Idealismus,' he says this:

"The man of the future will be mixed-race... The Eurasian-Negroid race of the future... will replace the diversity of peoples... Russian Bolshevism constitutes a decisive step towards this purpose, where a small group of Communist spiritual aristocrats govern the country...

Jewry surpasses all other peoples in percentage of important men... with Trotsky as the frontrunner of modern politics... The prominent position held by the Jews these days is owed to their spiritual supremacy... Modern anti-Semitism is one of the many reactionary phenomena of the mediocre against the supreme."

In 1950, the Count was awarded the first Charlemagne Prize. Other winners of the award have included, Winston Churchill, Henry Kissinger, Edward Heath, Bill Clinton and Tony Blair. Of mixed-race himself, two of his three wives were Jewish.

THE GENOCIDAL ANTI-WHITE NARRATIVE

Flood EVERY & ONLY white countries with hundreds of millions of non-whites

Create assimilation laws that restrict whites from having any states, counties, cities, towns, villages, neighborhoods or schools to themselves

Institute "diversity" policies to replace white kids in schools, universities, and employment

Promote miscegenation & demonize those opposed to it

Create "Hate Speech" laws that make it a criminal act for whites to object to their genocide

Dehumanize White kids by telling them they're a privileged "social construct" that are not worth preserving

"I think there is a resurgence of anti-Semitism because at this point in time Europe has not yet learned how to be multicultural. And I think we are going to be part of the throes of that transformation, which must take place. Europe is not going to be the monolithic societies they once were in the last century. Jews are going to be at the centre of that. It's a huge transformation for Europe to make. They are now going into a multicultural mode and Jews will be resented because of our leading role."

"Gentlemen, I have come this morning to the inexcusable conclusion that we have fought on the wrong side. This entire war we should have fought with the fascists against the communists and not the other way around.

I fear that perhaps in fifty years America will pay a dear price and become a land of corruption and degenerate morals."

— General George S. Patton (July 21, 1945)

"Of course I know the expression 'lost tribes of Israel' that is applied to the tribes which disappeared... Not to the tribe of Judah from which the current sons of bitches are descended. However, it is my personal opinion that this too is a lost tribe...
Lost to all decency."

General George Patton - Diary - October 2, 1945

The Patton Papers 1940-1945 Boston Massachusetts Da Capo Press 1996 page 790

Legendary U.S. General George S. Patton realized late in WW2 that the United States fought the wrong country.

Patton felt the U.S. should have sided with Germany to destroy Jewish Bolshevik/Communist USSR.

This information comes from Patton's diary entries, letters he wrote to his wife, and comments he made to military officers and staff.

One diary entry of General Patton said -
"If what we are doing (to the Germans) is 'Liberty, then give me death.' I can't see how Americans can sink so low. It is Semitic, and I am sure of it."

On 9 March 1940, the German Minister of Foreign Affairs von Ribbentrop sent an official letter to Marshal Mannerheim, dated 07.03.1940 and bearing the signatures of Reich Marshal H. Göring and von Ribbentrop. The content of this document, signed as a record of the Mannerheim Archives K/8/24, was as follows: To Marshal C. G. E. Mannerheim of Finland On 07.03.40, the German Reich government gave information that there is an Anglo-Russian attack plan against Germany, which foresees an invasion of the Baltic States and Scandinavia. The German government does not want to wait for this plan to be realized. He does not agree under any circumstances that military operations should be transferred to the territory of the German Reich. In order to prevent the Anglo-French invasion and to prevent the occupation of Norway and Denmark, Germany is taking preventive measures. If the Russian armies were to launch an attack on Finland and the Swedish coast from the Gulf of Bothnia (the Gulf of Bothnia), German military forces would occupy Norway and Denmark. In such a case, the German Air Force will also launch direct air strikes on the parts of the Finnish territory from which the Russian troops' offensive originates. If Finland wants help from German troops in resisting Russian forces, it must submit an inquiry to the German government to see if it agrees to support the air force. The German government asks that the Air Force's request for support be notified directly to the Minister of Foreign Affairs. Berlin, 02.04.1940 Hermann Göring Reich Marshal J. von Ribbentrop Minister for Foreign Affairs of the German Reich The following materials were attached to this document: Photocopy of a secret military agreement signed by Stalin and Churchill on 15 October 1939. This includes plans for the realisation of the document; Scandinavian aerial photographs with notes of a strategic and tactical nature on the planned military operational movements of British and French troops from the north towards the borders of the German Reich; Explanation of the organization and execution of a joint war between the West and the East against the German Reich.

The following diagrams are attached to the document:- Aerial photo copy of Allied operational plans in Norway;- Diagram on the map of the plan for the German Reich's military seizure on four fronts. (On the Northern Front, on the West French and Belgian-Dutch fronts, on the Yugoslav front in the Balkan Peninsula, and on the main Soviet Russian front.) After the Soviet Union has occupied Finland and the British-French expeditionary forces have occupied Norway, Denmark and southern Sweden, the Joint General Staff draws up a timetable for joint offensive offensives in the following sequence: British Expeditionary Army units in northern France march through Belgium with the French Army and then go on the offensive on the Rhine front. At the same time, Russian troops begin an offensive from Czechoslovakia and Poland.

The Netherlands and Belgium have promised to take part in this joint offensive against the German Reich. The naval forces of England and France isolate the German navy, blocking the northern North Sea and the branch canal of Dover and Calais until the German army is neutralized.

According to the plan, the main attack on Germany will come from Scandinavia via Denmark and the Baltics. The General Staff of Operations will remain in Paris, where it will immediately begin operations. The joint General Staff of the French and British Air Forces, together with the General Staff of the Soviet Russian Air Force, immediately forms a working group with the operational objective of inflicting a devastating blow on the German Air Force, in order to then jointly launch land operations.

The clause written in the agreement about possible assistance to Finland is based on the agreement reached between Churchill and Stalin at the secret meeting in the Crimea in the SUMMER OF 1939 (the invasion of British Norway). At the request of the Soviet Russian General Staff, nautical charts indicating the minefields in Norwegian waters have been attached to the military secret agreement. Royal Navy begins minelaying Norwegian waters on 5-6 April 1940. The attached map marks the waterways left free of mines for its naval forces. Clarification According to Mannerheim's secret service, the British Admiralty had confirmed its readiness to deal with the Soviet Union on 15 October. 1939 and gave its consent to the annexation of Finland by the Soviet Union, which was to begin on 15 May 1940.

“Poland wants war with Germany and Germany will not be able to avoid it even if she wants to.”
~ Polish Marshal Rydz-Smigly, as reported in the Daily Mail, August 6th, 1939.

“It will be the Polish army that will invade Germany on the first day of war.”
~ Juliusz Łukasiewicz, Polish Ambassador in Paris, August 15, 1939.

On September 2nd 1939 a delegate of the Labour Party met with the British Foreign Minister Halifax in the lobby of Parliament.

“Do you still have hope?” he asked. “If you mean hope for war,” answered Halifax, “then your hope will be fulfilled tomorrow.” – “God be thanked!” replied the representative of the British Labour Party.

(Professor Michael Freund)

“In April, 1939, (four months before the outbreak of war) Ambassador William C. Bullitt, whom I had known for twenty years, called me to the American Embassy in Paris. The American Ambassador told me that war had been decided upon. He did not say, nor did I ask, by whom. He let me infer it. ... When I said that in the end Germany would be driven into the arms of Soviet Russia and Bolshevism, the Ambassador replied: "What of it? There will not be enough Germans left when the war is over to be worth Bolshevizing."

(Karl von Wiegand, April, 23rd, 1944, Chicago Herald American)

British Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain told US Ambassador to Britain, Joseph P. Kennedy (father of future US President John F. Kennedy), that "it was America and world Jews who had forced Britain into war against Hitler."

In the months prior to America's formal entry into war (December 1941), Atlantic naval vessels of the ostensibly neutral United States were already at war against German naval forces. (See Mr. Roosevelt's Navy: The Private War of the U.S. Atlantic Fleet, 1939-1942, by Patrick Abbazia [Annapolis: Naval Institute Press, 1975]). And two days after the "Barbarossa" strike, Roosevelt announced US aid to Soviet Russia in its war for survival against the Axis. Thus, at the outbreak of the "Barbarossa" attack, Hitler wrote in a letter to Mussolini: "At this point it makes no difference whether America officially enters the war or not, it is already supporting our enemies in full measure with mass deliveries of war materials."

Maria Ivanova Russian volunteer worker in Germany: The Germans took very good care of us, I stayed close to the city for most of February, but the endless columns of refugees kept coming, and so were the Soviets. I was moved west with large groups of refugees, and witnessed strafing of civilians by both Soviet and allied pilots. I eventually made my way Weimar where by April it was in American hands. I was labelled a slave laborer, and was told I could be sent back to Russia; I refused as most all did, and begged to stay in Germany or go to America. This was tricky, as the Allies knew we volunteered to work in Germany, and if we were sent back we would be executed. They made us sign forms that we were held in Germany as forced labor, and no one dared correct this, as we knew what it meant. Luckily, I met a GI and he was able to bring me back with him in 1946, he became my husband and we settled in Cleveland, Ohio.

Operation Keelhaul - Allied armies, especially England's and America's, assisted the Russian Red Army to ethnically cleanse 5,115,709 Eastern Europeans during population transfers under the top secret Yalta Agreement.

THE LEADERS LIED AND HID THEIR CRIMES FOR DECADES. When FDR died and Truman took over, he did NOTHING to rescue our betrayed troops. That would have exposed what was done by FDR. GENOCIDE SO TERRIBLE IT WAS COMPLETELY HIDDEN FOR ALMOST 40 YEARS AND IS STILL CLASSIFIED "TOP SECRET" TODAY BY ALL NATIONS INVOLVED. Operation Keelhaul was a forced repatriation of former Soviet Armed Forces POWs of Germany to the Soviet Union, carried out in Northern Italy by British and American forces between 14 August 1946 and 9 May 1947. Also caught up in this top secret operation were some 5 million innocent civilians, some who were Christian ethnic groups opposed to communist rule, who had fled Russia and other communist nations at the outset of the war.

According to British documents, located in the British Public Records Office at Kew Gardens in London, over 500,000 Croatian civilians and 200,000 soldiers were handed over to Tito's (Jewish) Yugoslav Partisan Army in May of 1945. Based on eyewitness testimony and independent documentation, we can only estimate that the vast majority were slaughtered. May 15th 2014 marks 69 years since the days after WWII ended hundreds of thousands of innocent Croats (disarmed soldiers, civilians including women and children, fleeing communist Yugoslavia into promised freedom in the West found themselves slaughtered over the ensuing two months by Tito's communists; the field at Bleiburg in Austria marks the central point where the slaughters began as the fleeing refugees were turned by the British forces into Yugoslavia, into the vicious and murderous hands of the communists, who dare to call themselves antifascists, under the pretence of forced repatriation.

Eisenhowers death Camps

'Starting in April 1945, the United States Army and the French Army casually annihilated one million [German] men, most of them in American camps... Eisenhower's hatred, passed through the lens of a compliant military bureaucracy, produced the horror of death camps unequalled by anything in American history... an enormous war crime.'

-Col. Ernest F. Fisher, PhD Lt., 101st Airborne Division, Senior Historian, United States Army

This is a October 1993 interview done with Soviet soldier Vadim Mikailov from the 27th Rifle Division.

What happened to the civilians during these retreats, did they come with you?

Mikailov: It was ordered by STAVKA that all civilians retreat with our armies, though many refused or could not. I would witness many long columns of old and young moving east, sometimes holding up our military and preventing movement. They had to be removed off the roads sometimes by threat of force so we could get through. Something strange I saw was that the enemy seemed to go out of their way to not attack these columns when they could see they were civilians. An artillery battery was trying to get through and the bombers avoided targeting them, which surprised me. They did hit them later on as they were on a bridge that was only for military traffic. They destroyed the bridge and the battery, but our engineers quickly rebuilt the bridge.

Something that happened in December 1941, six months after the start of the German occupation, illustrates the positive reaction quite well. During that time people from some of the small villages collected several thousand woollen socks, mittens and felt boots as Christmas gifts for the German soldiers. Inside one of the socks there was a note signed by a Russian by the name of Mikhail Nikiforov:

"I am sending these socks as a gift to the invincible German army and pray that you defeat the Bolsheviks so that they are eradicated forever, and also for a quick victory and a safe journey home".

The 1945 Sinkings of the Cap Arcona and the Thielbek Allied Attacks Killed Thousands of Concentration Camp Inmates

Some 5,000 prisoners hastily evacuated from the Neuengamme concentration camp (a few miles southeast of Hamburg) were brought on board the Cap Arcona between April 18 and 26, along with some 400 SS guards, a naval gunnery detail of 500, and a crew of 76. Similarly the Thielbek took on some 2,800 Neuengamme prisoners. Under the terrible conditions that prevailed in what remained of unoccupied Germany during those final weeks, conditions for the prisoners on board the two vessels were dreadful. Many of the tightly packed inmates were ill, and both food and water were in very short supply.

On the afternoon of May 3, 1945, British "Typhoon" fighter-bombers, striking in several attack waves, bombarded and fired on the Cap Arcona and then the Thielbek. The two ships, which had no military function or mission, were flying many large white flags. "The hoisting of white flags proved useless," notes the Encyclopedia of the Third Reich. The attacks were thus violations of international law, for which — if Britain and not Germany had been the vanquished power — British pilots and their commanders could have been punished and even executed as "war criminals."

The Thielbek, struck by rockets, bombs and machine gun fire, sank in just 15-20 minutes. British planes then fired on terror-stricken survivors who were struggling in rescue boats or thrashing in the cold sea. Nearly everyone on board the Thielbek perished quickly, including nearly all the SS guards, ship's officers and crew members. Only about 50 of the prisoners survived.

The burning Cap Arcona took longer to go under. Many inmates burned to death. Most of those who were able to leap overboard drowned in the cold sea, and only some 350-500 could be rescued. During the next several days hundreds of corpses washed up on nearby shores, and were buried in mass graves. Having sunk in shallow water, the wreck of the capsized Cap Arcona remained partially above water as a grim reminder of the catastrophe.

CHRISTIANS MUST BE EXTERMINATED

Since, however, it is not always and everywhere possible to effect this extermination of Christians, the Talmud orders that they should be attacked at least indirectly, namely: by injuring them in every possible way, and by thus lessening their power, help towards their ultimate destruction. Wherever it is possible a Jew should kill Christians, and do so without mercy.

'The war now proposed is for the purpose of establishing Jewish hegemony throughout the world.'
-Brigadier General George Van Horn Mosely, The New York Tribune, March 29, 1939.

'We are not denying and are not afraid to confess that this war is our war and that it is waged for the liberation of Jewry... Stronger than all fronts together is our front, that of Jewry. We are not only giving this war our financial support on which the entire war production is based, we are not only providing our full propaganda power which is the moral energy that keeps this war going. The guarantee of victory is predominantly based on weakening the enemy forces, on destroying them in their own country, within the resistance. And we are the Trojan horses in the enemy's fortress. Thousands of Jews living in Europe constitute the principal factor in the destruction of our enemy. There, our front is a fact and the most valuable aid for victory.'

-Chaim Weizmann, President of the World Jewish Congress, Head of the Jewish Agency and later President of Israel, in a Speech on December 3, 1942, in New York

'Under no circumstances may food supplies be assembled among the local inhabitants in order to deliver them to prisoners of war. Those who violate this command and nevertheless try to circumvent this blockade to allow something to come to the prisoners place themselves in danger of being shot.'

-Dwight David Eisenhower

Dangerous precedents were also created by the Nuremberg court. Maurice Bardeche points out that the concept of having a native country was discarded. Everybody, or more correctly, every Jew, is world citizen. The Jewish migrant from Zhitomir is as much a citizen of your country as you are. He has equal rights to your land. You agricultural workers must respect the rights of Negroes on the land, and you must make room for him at your table. He will march in and take office in your city or rural council, so as to make you familiar with outside "world conscience". His sons will, perhaps, become masters over you and they may sit in judgment over your sons. They will rule in your own city and they will re-sell you your own land, for "world conscience" entitles them to do so.

A Review of James Bacque's "Crimes and Mercies: The Fate of German Civilians Under Allied Occupation 1944-1950" by Eric Blair According to Bacque, given the extraordinarily harsh conditions imposed upon them by the Allies (i.e., the British, French, Soviets, and Americans), at least 9.3 million and possibly as many as 13.7 million Germans, had, by 1950, needlessly died as a result.

Between 20 and 25 MILLION Germans and 'collaborators' (foreigners) were killed AFTER the war. When we reached Metgethen, we were confronted with a gruesome sight: We found several hundred dead German soldiers, many of whom had been disfigured beyond recognition. There were murdered civilians in just about every home, likewise disfigured in a most bestial manner. For example, some women had their breasts cut off, and in backyard gardens we found scarcely clad women who had been hanged upside down.

In one house we came across a 63-year-old woman still alive. Crying, she told us that she had been raped by 12 to 15 Russians. She lay on the floor covered in blood. This old woman's daughter had escaped into the forest nearby, but her one-year-old child was abducted by the Russians. In the streets of Metgethen, and also at the railroad station, we found approximately 15 baby carriages, some overturned, all empty. We concluded that this meant the Russians had also abducted these babies.'

'The extradition and presentation of entire countries and nations to the Russians by Roosevelt; the senseless and deliberate destruction of the most magnificent cities; the most cruel expulsion of millions of Eastern-Germans from their century old homes; the development and the execution of the Eisenhower-Morgenthau-Roosevelt plan, the most inhuman act of revenge since there is a recorded history; the slow and painful murdering of 20-30 million human beings by starvation, cold and privation.'

Churchill Anthrax..

Dr. James B. Conant, president of Harvard, who had spent the First World War developing more effective poison gases, and who in 1942 had been commissioned by Winston Churchill to develop an Anthrax bomb to be used on Germany, which would have killed every living thing in Germany. Conant was unable to perfect the bomb before Germany surrendered, otherwise he would have had another line to add to his resume.

A secret plan reveals that the Americans were prepared to destroy a large part of the German population with poison gas towards the end of the war.

Luftwaffe Raid on Bari Italy December 2nd 1943

The American merchant ship "John Harvey" had been in the port of the southern Italian city of Bari for four days, and the cargo had still not been unloaded.

To this day, the background to the "Bari catastrophe," according to historian and poison gas expert Günther Gellermann, remains a closely guarded secret. Although military historians have long speculated about whether the Americans wanted to counter the "expected German gas deployment there with a corresponding counterstrike" (Gellermann) after landing in Italy, nothing more was known.

Only a chance find by the Württemberg private researcher and specialist author Fritz Hahn, 66, in a Washington archive reveals the drama of a plan that the US war leadership wanted to implement immediately after the "first use of gas by the Axis powers" ("G Day"). According to this, thousands of planes were to "in a 15-day operation" from Italy and England 30 major German cities with mustard gas and/or phosgene, the important industrial and manufacturing plants were to be attacked and thus end the Second World War in Europe with one blow.

February 13/14 1945: Holocaust over Dresden, known as the Florence of the North. Dresden was a hospital city for wounded soldiers. Not one military unit, not one anti-aircraft battery was deployed in the city. Together with the 600.000 refugees from Breslau, Dresden was filled with nearly 1.2 million people. Churchill had asked for "suggestions how to blaze 600.000 refugees". He wasn't interested how to target military installations 60 miles outside of Dresden. More than 700.000 phosphorus bombs were dropped on 1.2 million people. One bomb for every 2 people. The temperature in the centre of the city reached 1600 centigrade. More than 260.000 bodies and residues of bodies were counted. But those who perished in the centre of the city can't be traced. Appr. 500.000 children, women, the elderly, wounded soldiers and the animals of the zoo were murdered in one night.

Weimar Germany to Weimar UK: the Britain we once knew no longer exists

‘This isn’t the Britain we fought for,’ say the ‘unknown warriors’ of WWII

I sing no song for the once-proud country that spawned me,’ wrote a sailor who fought the Japanese in the Far East, ‘and I wonder why I ever tried.’ ‘My patriotism has gone out of the window,’ said another ex-serviceman. In the Mail this week, Gordon Brown wrote about ‘our debt of dignity to the war generation’. But the truth that emerges from these letters is that the survivors of that war generation have nothing but contempt for his government. They feel, in a word that leaps out time and time again, ‘betrayed’. New Labour, said one ex-commando who took part in the disastrous Dieppe raid in which 4,000 men were lost, was ‘more of a shambles than some of the actions I was in during the war, and that’s saying something!’ He added: ‘Those comrades of mine who never made it back would be appalled if they could see the world as it is today.’ They would wonder what happened to the Brave New World they fought so damned hard for.

‘When our soldiers returned home and after they had seen the sad consequences of our intervention in the European quarrel they cried out: ‘We fought on the wrong side!’

-American Reverend Dr. Ludwig A. Fritsch

"It is untrue that I or anyone else in Germany wanted war in 1939. It was wanted and provoked solely by international statesmen either of Jewish origin or working for Jewish interests. Nor had I ever wished that after the appalling first World War, there would ever be a second against either England or America."

Adolf Hitler, April, 1945.

Unfortunately for those who would like to link Hitler and the National Socialists with gun control, the entire premise for such an effort is false. German firearms legislation under Hitler, far from banning private ownership, actually facilitated the keeping and bearing of arms by German citizens by eliminating or ameliorating restrictive laws which had been enacted by the government preceding his: a left-center government which had contained a number of Jews.

China established gun control in 1935. From 1948 to 1952, 20 million political dissidents, unable to defend themselves, were rounded up and exterminated.

Whatever the price of the Chinese Revolution, it has obviously succeeded not only in producing more efficient and dedicated administration, but also in fostering high morale and community of purpose. The social experiment in China under Chairman Mao's leadership is one of the most important and successful in human history.

- David Rockefeller

FDR was not only a traitor to America for allowing Japan to freely attack us on December 7, 1941 and a big time socialist liberal, but was also Jewish. Oh, yes he was. He even admitted it to a few reporters and his genealogy confirms it (below). He may not have been a practicing Jew and almost always kept quiet about it, but he was indeed Jewish. Great grandfather Isaac Roosevelt founded the Bank of New York and FDR's maternal grandfather, Warren Delano II (Jewish too), made his fortune in the Sassoon drug running empire — the British Jew oligarchy behind the Opium Wars in China. The Sassoons were also closely associated with the Rothschilds.

“President Roosevelt knows well enough that his ancestors were Jewish. I heard Theodore Roosevelt [his distant cousin] state twice that his ancestors were Jewish. Once was to me when I asked him about it after he had made a pleasing euphemistic statement in a speech to a Jewish gathering.”

Eleanor Roosevelt Admits Warren Delano Made Money In Opium Trade

NEW YORK — Eleanor Roosevelt, at last has admitted the truth of my disclosure soon after the death of her husband that his grandfather, Warren Delano, made money importing opium into Hong Kong. The fact that Delano did shove narcotics on the helpless Chinese masses was well concealed until F.D. Roosevelt had been laid away in a "shrine" at Hyde Park which is still maintained at public expense.

This canting mountebank professed to be a "profound" student of history but his idolaters will now plead that the poor man could not have been expected to know this petty detail of his own grandfather's corrupt career.

closed the dismissal of the white servants left behind by President and Mrs. Hoover. Mrs. Nesbitt wrote that "Mrs. Roosevelt and I agreed that a staff solid in any one color worked in better understanding and maintained a smoother-running establishment... Mrs. Roosevelt had found it out over a lifetime of running large houses."

I will nail down the truth of this later in this essay and in the same closing will cite from her current admissions concerning opium smuggling by Delano.

Last November, R. Carter Pittman, a Georgia lawyer, called the turn on La Boca's false statement in her column in McCall's that the anti-Negro clause in deeds to Roosevelt's Warm Springs building lots was but an unwilling submission to a state law. Brought to bay, after exhausting every quibble, she finally wrote Pittman that Franklin might have said it was a "custom," not a law, which forced him to forbid Negroes forever to own or occupy lots which he sold.

Pittman, a great authority on the subject, insists that there never was such a law. A "custom" would be debatable but anyway the widow now pleads the grand fraud guilty of mercenary submission to bigotry.

In her last stand, she wrote Pittman: "I am quite sure my husband never gave any written instructions on restrictive clauses —" etc. Of course not. He was to crooked to do that. He got his own, solely-owned corporation to adopt this clause and it was done
